Date : 18th June 2016

Place : M.P. Shah Arts and Science College, Surendranagar

Taluka level Judiciary Camp was organized in M.P. Shah Arts and Science College, Surendranagar. Judge R.K. Pandya from legal department of district court inaugurated the event and three eminent lawyers of surendranagar also joined him in the event. They provide valuable guidance in seeking justice they informed us that the interventions under the Project are focused on strengthening access to justice for the poor, particularly women, Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, and minorities. The Project seeks, on the one hand, to improve the institutional capacities of key justice service providers to enable them to effectively serve the poor and disadvantaged. On the other hand, it aims to directly empower the poor and disadvantaged men and women to seek and demand justice services.
