Wall Painting Competition

Date : 30th November 2017

Place : M.P. Shah Arts and Science College, Surendranagar

A Wall Painting Competition was organized in M.P. Shah Arts and Science College, Surendranagar, aimed at speeding social awareness in society. M.P. Shah Arts and Science College, Surendranagar, has long set of compound wall facing main station road. Large amount of locomotive and public pass by on the said road, so it is quite suitable location for this kind of activity. Many students of college participated into this competition. They have brought color on their own to match their paintings. Two hours of time was allotted to the students and one student can have one helper. After competition result was declared by cultural committee of college. Total of eight diagrams were painted on the front wall of the M.P. Shah Arts and Science College, Surendranagar each carrying a social message. These diagrams convey messages relating to women empowerment and also about the issue of Brain drain (or) Talent drain. One of the diagrams shows a woman sitting on the palm of a hand. One diagram was about Clean India, another is about 'BETI BACHAVO BETI PADHAVO'. It was indeed a wonderful program.
