Blood Motivation Camp On 01-08-2015

Blood Motivation Camp was organized by NSS Unit on 01-08-2015 at Shri M.P.Shah Arts and Science College Surendranagar in collaboration with Rotary Club of Surendranagar. The chief guests invited in this camp were the President of Rotary Club Shri Pratyushbhai Ghosaliya, Secretary Ashokbhai Jobanputra and the chairman of Blood motivation Camp Project Shri Kamleshbhai Raval. They had an interactive session with the students of BA and BSC giving them detailed information on the significance of blood donation required in many emergency situations. They motivated students for the noble cause called blood donation as blood is something that cannot be created or manufactured artificially or through machines. It is only through human body it could be shared to other human beings. It was a significant event as the students were really inspired with this lecture. Total 300 volunteers participated in this camp. The whole program was successfully conducted under the leadership of Dr. D.H. Gandhi and Mr. Vipul Kanagra the efforts of whom were admired by the Principal.
